

Addition number wall

Addition number walls are constructed by adding the numbers written on two bricks next to each other and writing their sum on the brick which lies above those two bricks.

Complete the addition number walls by means of the cards. The first should be constructed out of positive numbers and the second wall out of negative numbers!

Addition number wall

Addition number walls are constructed by adding the numbers written on two bricks next to each other and writing their sum on the brick which lies above those two bricks.

Complete the addition number walls by means of the cards. The first should be constructed out of positive numbers and the second wall out of negative numbers!

Addition number wall

Addition number walls are constructed by adding the numbers written on two bricks next to each other and writing their sum on the brick which lies above those two bricks.

Complete the addition number walls by means of the cards. The first should be constructed out of positive numbers and the second wall out of negative numbers!

Addition number wall

Addition number walls are constructed by adding the numbers written on two bricks next to each other and writing their sum on the brick which lies above those two bricks.

Complete the addition number walls by means of the cards. The first should be constructed out of positive numbers and the second wall out of negative numbers!

Addition number wall

Addition number walls are constructed by adding the numbers written on two bricks next to each other and writing their sum on the brick which lies above those two bricks.

Complete the addition number walls by means of the cards. The first should be constructed out of positive numbers and the second wall out of negative numbers!

Addition number wall

Addition number walls are constructed by adding the numbers written on two bricks next to each other and writing their sum on the brick which lies above those two bricks.

Complete the addition number walls by means of the cards. The first should be constructed out of positive numbers and the second wall out of negative numbers!

Addition number wall

Addition number walls are constructed by adding the numbers written on two bricks next to each other and writing their sum on the brick which lies above those two bricks.

Complete the addition number walls by means of the cards. The first should be constructed out of positive numbers and the second wall out of negative numbers!

Addition number wall

Addition number walls are constructed by adding the numbers written on two bricks next to each other and writing their sum on the brick which lies above those two bricks.

Complete the addition number walls by means of the cards. The first should be constructed out of positive numbers and the second wall out of negative numbers!